Bet on Honeywell and we'll put you in the winner's enclosure.

When you need security solutions that always perform like the best in breed, you can count on Honeywell's new Performance Series – a line-up of high quality and competitively priced cameras and DVRs. With a simple and solid design, our indoor and outdoor mini-domes, IR bullet cameras, and 4, 8, and 16-channel DVRs are easy to install and easy to operate. But best of all, they'll give you the performance you need, backed by the strength of a thoroughbred you can depend on. Let Honeywell be your favourite to Win. Because performance matters.
